

Tax Law and Estate Planning Specialists in Pre-Migration Structuring

Jones Law specialise in tax law, trusts and business structuring and can assist you to structure your legal affairs prior to and upon arrival in New Zealand.

We will work with you to adopt wealth preservation strategies best suited to you and your family's needs from the inception of your new life in New Zealand.

The cross border implications of your investment arrangements can be complex

Our structuring advice is designed to ensure that future generations are fully protected against the raft of challenges that can deplete family wealth, and to maximize the overall tax efficiency of your business and personal assets, both in New Zealand and remaining off-shore.

As a new migrant, you should consider:

- The new migrant tax exemption and if it applies to you
- Your tax exposure on foreign currency holdings
- Tax implications of offshore investments
- Gifting and cross-border asset transfers
- Relationship property and creditor risk

Contact us

A poorly timed visit to New Zealand may be enough to deprive you of access to valuable tax exemptions. We recommend talking before you even set foot in New Zealand. A pre-migration consultation, via telephone, skype or email, can prove invaluable in terms of pre-migration planning.

We invite you to view our landing page www.jones-law.co.nz/movingtonz to read more about some key planning issues relevant to new migrants to New Zealand. Please contact us for a no obligation discussion.
